

University of Oxford - Finance Division

The Finance Division is located in the west of central Oxford on Hythe Bridge Street. We occupy the ground floor of the black building, which is between the Saïd Business School and the bridge over the canal.

On Arrival

Please go to the main entrance of our building, and advise the receptionist you are visiting the Finance Division of the University of Oxford. You will be let in to our offices via a double door, through which you will find our reception. Our receptionist will inform the relevant people of your arrival. In case there is no receptionist available, please ring the bell, as indicated on the desk.

Receptionist telephone number: 01865-616131

HOW TO FIND US

From the town centre

We are situated 5 -10 minutes from the town centre. From Cornmarket Street, walk down George Street and continue straight onto Hythe Bridge Street.

By car

From the A34 (ring road) come off at the Botley Interchange, and follow the A420, which becomes the Botley Road, and continue straight onto Hythe Bridge Street. From central Oxford, Hythe Bridge Street is accessed via Worcester Street, as George Street is blocked to traffic.

Parking

The nearest car parks are situated on Worcester Street, and at Gloucester Green, and there is also short-term and long-term parking at the train station. Seacourt (park & ride) is approximately a 15-minute walk from Hythe Bridge Street.

By train

Our office is a two-minute walk from the train station. We are situated at the corner of Rewley Road and Hythe Bridge Street.

By bus / coach

The X90 and the Oxford Tube stop at Gloucester Green coach station, a two-minute walk from Hythe Bridge Street. The nearest local bus stops are on Worcester Street, St Giles and the High Street.

